

Searching for Your Ancestors?

If you are searching for your ancestors, or if you are just starting down the genealogy path, the Clatsop County Genealogical Society can help.

About Our Library

We maintain a Genealogy Library that contains very helpful information to assist you in your research. Our library is housed within the Clatsop County Historical Society archives located at the Heritage Museum, 1618 Exchange Street, in Astoria.

The archives is open Tuesday through Friday from 10AM-12PM and 1PM-4PM.

Access to the genealogical library is by appointment only. To schedule a visit to the library, please call 503-325-1963 or 503-298-8917.

You can learn more about our library and our publications by visiting our website or emailing us at clatsopcountygensoc@gmail.com.

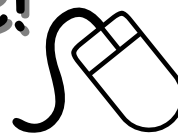

You will find in our genealogical library:

How-to books, vital records, bibliographies, family histories, historical and genealogical sources from almost all 50 states, immigration information, military reference books and indexes, various local ethnic histories and more.

Find out about our society and see a list of our programs and the location of special events.
